The Ransome Trilogy

Historical Inspirational Romance in three volumes of approximately 90–100,000 words each.

July 1814. Bonaparte has abdicated and the war with France has ended, but the battle of hearts is just beginning.

The Ransome Trilogy combines the wit, romance, and social commentary of Jane Austen with the sea-faring adventure of Horatio Hornblower.

Julia Witherington swore she would never fall in love — especially with the man who stole her father’s affections. Royal Navy Captain William Ransome believes women are just a distraction. When Julia is forced to forge an arrangement to marry William Ransome, she must set aside her prejudice and learn what love and honor really mean.

Follow William and Julia’s adventure — from the ballrooms of Portsmouth across the Atlantic to the hunt for pirates in the Caribbean. It’s not just the seas that are tumultuous in this historical romance trilogy!

Book 1: *Ransome’s Honor (complete)

Book 2: *Ransome’s Crossing (work in progress)

Book 3: *Ransome’s Quest (coming soon!)

Boone’s Hollow Chronicles

Contemporary Inspirational Fiction of approximately 75–90,000 words each.

The bicentennial celebration of Boone’s Hollow, Tennessee, is about to tear the small town apart . . . including the descendents of the founding family.

In the first volume, Peace in the Valley, meet the residents of Boone’s Hollow as they try to determine the best course of action to keep their quaint community from disappearing off the map. Old-timers and newcomers clash over plans, while one man ignores the hubbub over the celebration and quietly tries to save what’s most important — his neighbors’ souls.

With southern charm and wisdom as old as the Tennessee hills, the Boone’s Hollow Chronicles celebrate small-town life and the American can-do spirit.

Will he risk his career to keep the woman he loves? Can Anne face her fears and risk her heart on the handsome Englishman? Can both risk everything and trust God to give them their own happy ending?

Forbes Guidry Inc. (working title/coming soon!) When Forbes Guidry agreed to run for state senate, he never imagined everyone around him would stop seeing him as a person and treat him as a commodity to be bought and sold by businesses and lobbyists. Historic architecture preservationist Elaine d’Arcement sees Forbes Guidry as a person—a person whose political career must end before it begins, if Bonneterre is to continue to be the charming town she loves. As election day approaches, can Ellie see beyond the fancy suits and expensive haircuts to the man of God Forbes claims to be? Can Forbes give up the luxuries of wealth, power, and popularity to choose love over his career?

The Bonneterre Inc. Series brings a different voice into the Inspirational Contemporary Romance genre, with a unique fictional setting with a Cajun flavor, quirky secondary characters ready for follow-up novels of their own, humor throughout, and spiritual elements woven gently but realistically into the plot and characters.
